LINDY STAGES AERIAL PARADE FOR CHILDREN

40,000 Children To Wave Welcome As Their Idol Flies Over City

ENDS JOURNEY IN BLAZE OF GLORY

Sticks to Course Despite Weather Conditions All Way From Cuba

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 14.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, the idol of American youth, was to stage a one-man aerial parade today for the celebration of 40,000 school children.

This gesture, incidentally, was to be the modest young aviator's official greeting to the "home folks of St. Louis" following his dramatic non-stop flight from Havana, Cuba, and the completion of one of the most famous aerial tours in history.

Lindbergh swooped down from a heavy sky here last evening just as dusk was settling over Lambert field. Flares had been lighted to compensate for the waning daylight. He had been in the air approximately 16 hours.

Tours 15 Nations

Thus, in a blaze of glory, the famous aviator completed with the clean-cut precision of his New York to Paris flight, a tour of 15 nations and dependencies in Central and South America.

Since leaving Washington, Dec. 13, on his epochal non-stop flight to Mexico City, Lindbergh has flown approximately 9,000 miles, more than a third of the distance around the world. And all of this without a single mishap. The entire trip was made in his famous trans-Atlantic plane, "The Spirit of St. Louis."

Owing to inclement weather less than 1,000 persons were on hand to welcome Lindbergh at Lambert field. It was just a year ago that Lindbergh "checked out" of the mail service here in order to prepare for his New York to Paris flight. Many of his old buddies were on hand to greet him.

Flies Over St. Louis

After the usual round of back slapping and handshaking, Lindbergh went directly to the home of Harry French Knight, the man who backed his trans-Atlantic hop. He spent the night there in quiet seclusion.

The city was to be given an opportunity to add its plaudits to those of the rest of the world late today. The flyer will take off from Lambert field at 2:15 p. m. and will fly over St. Louis. Then, following the river's course, he will fly low while the school children of the city, with small American flags, wave a welcome from the levee.

Lindbergh said the flight from Havana to St. Louis was without incident.

Sticks to Course

"I stuck to my course steadily and against the Mississippi river about 30 miles below St. Louis," he said. "I followed the river north to the Missouri river, circled St. Charles, Mo., and came into the flying field from the west."

Lindbergh said heavy weather prevailed most of the way and that visibility was "very low." He flew straight for Key West, he said, and then followed the west coast of Florida to Cedar Key where he took a direct compass course to St. Louis.

WILL REMODEL SPEIDEL BLOCK

Building To Be Occupied By National Furniture Store

A building permit for $3,500 was issued today by Mayor Phil Hiddleston to Samuel Levinson of the National Furniture Co. for the remodeling of the Speidel block on Main st.

The building will be occupied by the furniture store this spring. It will have a new front and will be extensively remodeled inside.

Legion Entertains Civil War Heroes

Mayor Phil Hiddleston gave a patriotic address at the dinner meeting of Charles H. Carey post, American Legion, when the post entertained members of Trecoet post, G. A. R. at the legion home Monday night.

Joseph H. Schneider was elected adjutant of the post, succeeding A. E. Jackson who has gone to Canton.

After the banquet and business meeting, there was a social period.

Lindy Still Loyal To Old Love

St. Louis, Mo., Feb. 14.—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh is still loyal to his old love—the air mail. He believes that service is still in infancy and will continue to develop.

"Nearly all important mail will be carried by airplane in the future with new routes being added and the service enlarged," Lindbergh declared.

Lindbergh regretted that he could not stop longer than to leave and take on mail at Springfield and Peoria, Ill., when he returns to his old St. Louis-Chicago air mail route next Monday and Tuesday, but as the flight will be under regular orders and flying schedule no time can be allowed for unnecessary delay.

DRIVE TO RAISE MEMBERSHIP OF HOUSE STARTED

West and South Demand More Representation In Congress

Washington, Feb. 14.—A drive to raise the membership of the house of representatives from 435 to 490 was launched today as the house census committee attacked the problem of reapportionment.

The demand sprang chiefly from representatives of agricultural states of the west and south which face a loss of congressional power every time a reapportionment is ordered on the basis of the present membership.

Peps Thurston (R) of Iowa and Lester (D) of Missouri leading the fight in committee for a larger house, point to the British house of commons with its 600 members and the large parliaments of other European nations.

Republican leaders are flatly opposed to the plan on the ground that the house is already so large that it is difficult to handle the business of the body.

Six bills demanding a reapportionment were before the committee as it began consideration of the problem. One of them, introduced by Rep. Blanton (D) of Texas, would cut the house membership to 390.

With congress refusing to make a reapportionment since 1911, representation throughout the country is admittedly unbalanced, with large cities and several states suffering under the discrimination.

BEGGAR GAINS WEALTH; NOW FACES COURT

Detroit, Feb. 14.—Frank Mosselle, 24, a "millionaire beggar," whose pretty wife, Lucille, 19, occupied a luxurious suite of rooms in a large downtown hotel while he posed as a cripple at a busy Detroit street corner, was to be arraigned today on a charge of begging.

Police say Mosselle made $30 a day.

Mrs. Mosselle said her husband transferred his base of operations from Chicago to Detroit because Chicagoans were "too flinty hearted."

The couple was married in Portland, Ore., a year ago.

Burned To Death

Youngstown, Feb. 14.—Homer Stover, 59, was burned to death today when fire, starting from an overheated stove, destroyed his home with a loss of approximately $10,000.

After making his proposal on the floor of the house, Connally said that he would introduce a resolution to this effect.

Bossy, Jimmy And Big Bill Have Nothing On Mayor Phil

"Bossy" Gillis, "bad boy" mayor of Newburyport, is no more colorful, nor are "Jimmy" Walker of New York and "Big Bill" Thompson of Chicago, busier speech makers than our own Mayor Phil G. Hiddleston.

It is becoming more apparent each day the administration grows older, that Salem's chief executive is about the classiest thing in after dinner talkers placed by the voters in a city hall in these parts.

In fact, Phil is so busy making speeches, he says, that when he gets home he hasn't a word to say and his wife does it all. "This may or may not be because I make speeches elsewhere," says Phil with a wink.

Jury Includes Ten Men, Two Women; Wilson Is The Alternate

JURORS TO VISIT CANTON TOMORROW

Will Be Taken To Scene Of Don Mellett Murder In That City

BULLETIN

Lisbon, Feb. 14.—The selection of the jury which will hear the case of S. A. Lengel, former Canton chief of police, on trial here for murder in connection with the Don R. Mellett assassination, was completed at 1:50 p. m. Tuesday.

Following the seating of Frank Irwin, East Palestine grocer, as the 13th and last regular juror, Kirby Wilson, Salem, was selected as the 13th or alternate juror. Court was adjourned at 1:55 p. m. by Judge Lones until 9:30 a. m. Wednesday, when the jury will be taken to Canton to view the scene of the murder.

Lisbon, Feb. 14.—With but a single preemptory challenge remaining to the defense and none to the state indications are that the jury in the murder case against ex-Chief S. A. Lengel of Canton will be seated permanently early this afternoon.

The original venire was exhausted at 11:05 a. m. and at that time, court declared a recess.

Prosecutor McClintock suggested to that court that a motion should be filed with the court for the drawing of the new venire, or that other talesmen be selected from bystanders under the law.

Late Monday afternoon, when it became certain to the court that the first venire would be exhausted before a jury was selected, the court ordered a special venire of 25 names drawn from the jury wheel.

No motion was made by counsel for defense or state at that time, but the record now shows the filing of such a motion made by the defense sustained by the court and

LINDY IS URGED TO END FLIGHTS

Secretary of War Would Halt Flyer's Hazardous Trips

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 14.—Secretary of War Dwight F. Davis left here today for St. Louis, where he will make an effort to persuade Col. Charles A. Lindbergh to give up what Davis believes to be the hazardous flights the "Lone Eagle" has been making recently.

"Lindbergh has performed feats of vast consequence to our nation," Davis said before leaving here. "He has cemented relations with foreign countries by instances of rare diplomacy. But his task is finished. There is no need for him to further expose himself to the dangers that manifestly lurk in his path. I would not presume to have him entirely eliminate his flying but the day when Lindbergh will fly over trackless jungles is past. He must not expose himself further in that type of flying and I am going to try to impress upon him the necessity of eliminating these long flights."

Washington, Feb. 14.—Rep. Connally (D) of Texas today proposed that congress request Col. Charles A. Lindbergh to abandon hazardous airplane flights because "his life is too valuable to the nation."

After making his proposal on the floor of the house, Connally said that he would introduce a resolution to this effect.

STOLEN WATCH IS RECOVERED

Working from 2 to 5 a. m. today Patrolmen Wilbur Hiddleston and Jesse Gray recovered a watch belonging to a Canton woman which had been carried off by friends who had visited here yesterday.

The two men and two women, a description of whom was given by the woman in a phone message to police, were apprehended in a restaurant. The woman tossed the watch into a lavatory, but Hiddleston recovered it.

No charges were placed by the Canton woman, following recovery of the watch, so the men and women held were released.

The men are prominent business men of Uniontown, Pa.

Same Thing All Week

It's just like that, all week, and I suppose next week, too," gasps the mayor between practices of his various addresses on everything from short skirts and bobbed hair to war and peace. He sure works hard on them.

He started in Sunday morning to learn, again, Lincoln's Gettysburg address, so he could spring it on the old vets last night. Monday noon found him still trying to master the address. Between sentences, and pacing the floor, he would utter some of his choice and colorful phrases about business of the court in several criminal ac-

The state of Indiana is trying to prove through McCray's testimony that Jackson offered $10,000 and immunity to McCray in 1923 for the appointment of James E. McDonald, Klan favorite, as prosecutor of Marlow.

Valentines Mailed To Mayor

Comic and satirically worded valentines caused a commotion at City Hall today.

When Carrier George Dresel arrived with a larger amount of mail than usual, Mayor Phil Hiddleston and police wondered what was up.

They soon learned, for on opening a pile of letters, they found all sorts of valentines, many of which were not so complimentary.

"Someone is always trying to make me mad," Hiddleston said.

OFFICIALS WILL INSPECT OTHER PUMPER TRUCKS

City officials who witnessed the demonstration of a LaFrance pumper fire truck in Pittsburgh Monday were well pleased with the test, but they plan to witness tests of other companies' equipment before making a final report to the ordinance committee of city council.

It is not probable that more than a tentative report will be given at tonight's adjourned meeting of council. Salesmen will tell their stories to the committee when the latter meets for final reports, some time in the near future.

Fire Chief Vincent Malloy, Safety Director Rex W. Ruggs and Service Director C. A. Cavanaugh saw the tests.

Another Lindbergh Crosses Atlantic

Portland, Me., Feb. 14.—Charles Lindbergh lands completing another trans-Atlantic hop.

Charley is oiler and water tender aboard the steamship Sagaphack in port today from Norway with a cargo of pulp.

The namesake of the famous airman claims no relationship with the colonel.

He had before him yesterday.

"I'm going to call this place the House of Tears instead of a palace of justice," exploded the mayor at the end of one of his verbal blasts.

"Why a woman came in here today and cried so much I had to send the police home to get her books."

Ready of wit, quick in rebuttal, and with a plentiful supply of hot, skipping words handy, Hiddleston ranks well with Bossy, Jimmy and Big Bill. He can outtalk Bossy when it comes to picturesque verbs, nouns and adjectives. He can outtalk Jimmy and Big Bill at banquets, meetings and similar gatherings. At least, it sounds that way.

EYES OF NATION ON OHIO BATTLE FOR PRESIDENT

Leaders Widely Split On Outcome of Hoover-Willis Clash

DECISION WILL COME APRIL 24

Great Deal Depending On Strategy of Next Two Months

By GEORGE W. HOLMES

Washington, Feb. 14.—Herbert Hoover went fishing today—for fish—leaving behind him more political excitement and speculation than Washington has seen since Calvin Coolidge said he did not choose to run.

"I will make no personal campaign," said the cabinet candidate relative to the battle he has accepted for Ohio's 51 delegates, and he suited the action to the words by departing for a vacation trip southward.

Meanwhile, with his presidential candidacy at last in the open, the secretary will rely wholly upon his friends and managers to map out the plan of the Ohio campaign upon which so much rests. The next 30 days will see the state, long the political cockpit of the country, over-run with Hoover agents.

Decide Battle April 24

Seldom has any approaching political contest found the local authorities so divided in opinion as in the Hoover-Willis battle in Ohio, which will be decided on April 24. Willis undoubtedly controls the Republican organization in Ohio, and that fact makes the practical politicians of the hard-boiled type favor his chances.

On the other hand, it is claimed by some keen politicians that there is a ground-swell for Hoover in the state, which, while not now so apparent, will be sufficient by April 24 to surprise the organization leaders.

A great deal depends, most politicians agree, upon the tactics and strategy of the next two months. Upon one thing, and virtually only one thing, all are agreed—that it will be one of the most spectacular pre-convention fights in recent history.

What Fight Means

Having accepted the challenge thrown down so spectacularly by Willis, the Hoover managers can do nothing else but go into the state with all the guns in their arsenal. Having had the challenge accepted, (Continued on Page 4)

CERTIFY NAMES FOR POLICEMEN

Three Are Eligible But Ruggy Will Make No Selection Now

The civil service commission today sent a list of three eligibles for appointment to the position of policeman to Safety Director Rex Ruggy, following final grading of the examination papers Monday night.

Director Ruggy stated that no appointment will be made immediately, and that possibly it may be held over until March 1.

William D. Reardon, with a grade of 80.6, was high man. He, Michael Welch, 77.9, and Frank Ewing, 77.1, were certified as the eligibles.

Those who "also ran" are Charles C. McGurran, Jesse R. Peppel, Charles D. Baker, Harry S. Todd, Thomas E. McGowan, Andrew Banker, and Lawrence H. Smeltz.

LIEUT. DAVIS WILL ATTEMPT ROME FLIGHT

Cleveland, Feb. 14.—A non-stop flight from Wilmington, Del., to Rome will be attempted next summer by Lieutenant George E. Davis, veteran Detroit flyer, now assigned to the federal prohibition enforcement aircraft fleet at Atlantic City, N. J., according to a statement by C. P. Rogers, associated with the DuPont interests, backers of the proposed flight, it was learned here today.

Rogers came here today from Detroit, where he conferred with officials of an airplane concern.

Herron Purchases Moving Business

A. J. Herron, 192 East Fifth st., today announced the purchase of the business and equipment of the W. H. Ritz moving concern on Franklin ave., operated by the late W. H. Ritz.

Mr. Herron will begin active operations next Monday. He has purchased the home, warehouse and equipment, including two trucks.

Room 107 Is Second In School Banking

Room 107 is running second to Room 109 in the race for honors in the school banking system at Salem High school.

Room 109 has held first place, at 100 per cent rating since Nov. 23. Previous to then Room 107 was in first place for four weeks, with 109 second. Room 107 has held percentages of between 80 and 87.

Third place is held by Room 309, which has banked as high as 50 per cent in a week, though the percentage of pupils having accounts in this room is about 65 per cent.

BURTON NEW PRESIDENT OF SANITARY CO.

New Structure of Steel Authorized By Stockholders; Efforts of Salem Men Successful; Start Work At Once

The plant of the National Sanitary company here, will be rebuilt at once.

Authorization for this rebuilding was given by the stockholders of the company at the annual meeting in Massillon Monday afternoon and evening.

The new building will cost approximately $100,000, and contracts will be awarded probably within a week.

Charles G. Burton, general manager, was elected president and general manager at the meeting of the board of directors following the stockholders' meeting, and the same organization which Mr. Burton headed before the fire Jan. 29, when the plant was destroyed, will be re-established.

Supt. Phil Lieder has been instructed to use as many of the former employees of the plant as possible in the reconstruction work, which begins immediately.

A new alignment of holdings in the company brings to Salem for the first time representation on the board of directors. This representation, and the fact that the plant is to be rebuilt in Salem, is due to the efforts of Salem manufacturers, business men, and professional men who gave money and time to accomplish this end.

Stockholders named the following directors:

W. H. Dunn and C. G. Burton, Salem; Floyd Snyder, W. E. Snyder, A. J. Drouhard, Massillon; J. E. Finerock, Canal Fulton; and W. E. Leeper, Fredericksburg.

Following the stockholders' meeting, the directors met and named the following officers:

New Officers

C. G. Burton, president and general manager; J. E. Finerock, vice president; H. L. Wright, Salem; assistant secretary and treasurer.

Finerock had been president, but he was replaced and made vice president, with Mr. Burton, the guiding executive of the firm, being elevated to the presidency.

Decision of the stockholders ends a period of suspense which began as the flames were at their height during the disastrous fire which took a toll of one dead, six injured and a half a million dollars loss.

The plant remains in Salem virtually as a result of the day and night efforts of the committee of Salem citizens who gave unstintingly of all they had in purse and money for the unselfish purpose of placing control of the holdings where it would mean rebuilding in this city.

Great pressure had been brought to bear in Massillon to have the plant moved to that city, and offers (Continued on Page 4)

STEPHENSON TO TELL HIS STORY

Fallen Grand Dragon Is Virtually Ordered To Give Testimony

Indianapolis, Feb. 14.—An unwilling witness, D. C. Stephenson, fallen grand dragon of the Indiana Ku Klux Klan, was virtually ordered by Special Judge Charles M. McCabe to testify today in the trial of Governor Ed Jackson in Marion criminal court on charges of conspiracy to bribe former Gov. Warren T. McCray.

When the hearing was resumed this morning the court ruled that the state was right in its contention that Stephenson could testify.

After a night spent in the Marion county jail, Stephenson, the "great-est sales manager the Klan ever had," remained quiet pending the decision of Judge McCabe on whether he may reveal what he is alleged to know concerning the dark spots of Indiana's political history.

Jackson, Robert I. Marsh and George V. Coffin are charged with having conspired to offer former Gov. Warren T. McCray $10,000 and immunity from conviction of offenses pending against him, if McCray would appoint a favorite of the trio as Marion county prosecutor.

SPEEDING MUST STOP, WARNING

Speeding and reckless driving must cease.

That is the warning of Mayor Phil Hiddleston, who today fined P. W. Hilliard $1 and costs for doing 36 miles an hour on McKinley ave.

Patrolman Ralph Stoffer, using the new speedometer on the police motorcycle, caught Hilliard exceeding the speed limit by driving his truck at 36 miles past McKinley school yesterday afternoon, it was stated.

Stoffer will patrol the streets at intervals to see that there is no speeding or reckless driving, the mayor said.

BENEFACTOR OF MANKIND

Has any American of this generation done more for the happiness of those around her than Mrs. Searles of Cherokee, Ia?

Mrs. Searles makes pies. She had baked 185,455 pies in the last eight years, up to Jan. 1, and has kept right on turning them out at the rate of 65 a day, and cutting them in generous portions for an indigent public.

Apple or mince or raisin or pumpkin or berry or cream—it's all the same to this artist, and every pie is a masterpiece. She makes her own filling, putting it up by the hundreds of gallons. Between pies she helps to run a restaurant and takes care of an aged mother and aunt.

Since the laborer is worthy of his hire, it is good to know that this practical philanthropist reaps a material reward. Eight years ago Mr. and Mrs. Searles had not much of anything except Mrs. Searles' God-given genius. Now they own their restaurant building and several other buildings, and are abounding in prosperity.

It should be so, and doubtless will be, for anyone who feeds his neighbors equally well. The eagerness with which men seek out the best house trap, though in a wilderness, is nothing to the avidity with which they go after good grub.

A NEW STAR COMES FORTH

Once again it has been done. From across the Allegheny mountains another adventurer has come and stormed and captured the term, high citadel of New York's Broadway. Miss Grace Moore, born and bred in Tennessee, made her debut last week, as a prima donna at the Metropolitan Opera company. The success that was hers came only to those whose conscientious efforts and innate ability compel recognition. The applause and tumultuous accord that greeted her first appearance was such as Broadway reserves for those who have struggled up the long paths to the heights of achievement.

Stranded on Broadway some years ago with only three cents in her possession, Miss Moore at that time vowed that some day she would sing in the Metropolitan. She now has reached her goal. All the months of training and work have been rewarded in the sweetness of two hours of triumph. The ambition of every singer is the Metropolitan, but none ever hoped for a welcome greater than that which Miss Moore gained through her perfect performance.

It was a nice touch that in her hour of triumph, Miss Moore's first words were those spoken over the spotlights to the delegation from her own state. To them she said that it was their presence in the Metropolitan, and the thought of how other people down in Tennessee would be proud of her, that gave her the courage to go through with her role. The courtesy and consideration for others which Miss Moore showed might well be followed by all. The dutiful feeling she had is a representative of her state might serve as an example to others equally ambitious.

What Others Say

THE ISLAND OF PERHAPS

In these prosaic days it is a delight to discover two governments disputing over anything so romantic as the tiny rocky islets set in icy loneliness in the waters of the South Atlantic. The British colonial office grants a license to a Norwegian whaling firm to occupy both Bouvet and Thompson islands to remove that valuable product, guano, and to take whales in the territorial waters, but the Norwegian government declares that Bouvet belongs to Norway and that it is unaware of the existence of Thompson island.

It should be mentioned that British charts show that there are three islands, not two; at one time it was reported that there were four, while Capt. Cook searched these seas and declared there were not any at all, and the Norwegian whalers insist that there is only one. On the scanty and somewhat confused evidence available it would seem that Bouvet island really does exist; it was discovered by a French explorer 200 years ago, though he did not think it worth claiming as French soil. One hundred years later the British government planted the Union Jack there, but apparently forgot to keep up a supply of new flags for a rival Norwegian whaler, thinking it no man's land, "discovered" it again a few weeks ago and claimed it for Norway.

The whalers insist that they have never seen a vestige of Thompson island which the cartographer has marked hundreds of miles within the ice pack. It has been suggested that Thompson island is only an iceberg, but on the other hand, a German scientist charted three islands—Bouvet, Thompson and Lindsay—when he traveled in these seas in 1898, and he is hardly likely to have been mistaken. Thompson island is marked as volcanic, possibly it has disappeared as completely as Atlantis in some unrecorded eruption.—New York Herald Tribune.

THE SUBMARINE MENACE

Once again the United States through Secretary of State Kellogg has suggested the world-scraping of submarines. Unfortunately, the act is likely again to be merely a gesture. England, sea-girt and realizing the efficiency of submarines in laying down a blockade, would be delighted as such international action. France, just now the mailed fist of Europe, and at the same time fearful of a dozen more or less hypothetical enemies, will have none of it. It is a pity that France, having seen the dire results of militarism in Germany, is wilfully determined to tread the same perilous way.

The submarine has no place in modern civilization. It is chiefly effective as a weapon against unarmed shipping and civilian populations. Unlike the aeroplane, chemical services and other essential constructive forces that can be mobilized in time of war, it has absolutely no peace time utility. It is conserved to the God of Fear, an iron and steel prophecy of forthcoming war and, as such, if not destroyed, will become the most dangerous cause of war.

The prospect of international peace will be more of a reality, less of a dream, when the sinister threat of the submarine no longer excites mutual fear between nations.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Twenty Years Ago

(Issue of Feb. 14, 1908)

The Rev. J. W. Reynolds, who has been chosen to the pastorate of the Christian church, Salem, has moved his household goods here. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds came here from Clinton, Ill.

Thirty-six men and women were burned to death in Ohio during the last year from matches igniting their clothing, according to the report of State Fire Marshal Creamer. A heavy fog prevailed throughout this territory Thursday evening and all day Friday, frequent showers falling. The snow which had been thawing for several days is practically all gone.

Pittsburgh—A dense fog enveloped the city and its suburbs all night and until noon today. The continuing mild weather is expected to be followed by floods and warnings have been issued to the lowlands and downtown business districts to prepare for high water.

Columbus—The Peoples Electric Light and Power company, Leetonia, to manufacture light, heat and power for the village of Leetonia and Columbiana county, has been incorporated in the sum of $15,000. The skating ring was filled to its capacity Thursday evening when the Quaker City band gave a benefit skate.

Columbus—The bill to increase the term of office of the dairy and food commissioner from two to four years was defeated by the house by a vote of 55 to 44.

Miss Vesta Camp has gone to Hudson for a visit and from there will go to Chicago. Later she will leave for Kansas to make her home. Miss Laura Hopkins, who has been recovering from an attack of grip at her home here, has returned to Cleveland, where she is employed as a nurse at Lakeside hospital.

AMERICAN BORN ORIENTALS LIKE AMERICAN WAYS

Younger Generation Eager to Follow Patterns Americans Set

Washington, Feb. 14.—The younger generations of American-born orientals are eager to follow the patterns set by the American family according to a research in sociology conducted by William C. Smith, of Honolulu.

Smith, in disclosing his views recently during a meeting of the American Sociological society here, pointed out that the behavior of the American-born orientals differs markedly from their immigrant parents.

"This is due not to biological causes, even though bodily changes have been observed," Smith said.

Cultural factors are responsible for the differences and doubtless the changes in the Oriental family in America is the most important. Life on the sugar plantations of Hawaii was described as having broken down old customs and standards. The young people are anxious to follow the pattern set by Americans, although Smith said, "limited contact gives them inadequate ideas."

"They are still greatly influenced by their own homes as made evident language and occupational choice," Smith continued. "Coincident with the disorganization of the older order, a process of reorganization is going on within the Oriental family in United States or its possessions."

In many instances there is a complete breakdown of eastern habits and modes of life. A large number of the Orientals are making the adjustments without serious difficulty.

Change Family Life
"The family life of the Orient characterized its members but under American conditions the family life is less uniform, dependent upon the state of disorganization and reorganization, and consequently a greater variety of personality types are developing in the young people reared in America. These personality types differ greatly from those of the parental groups."

Smith takes the view that the new generation or orientals, living in this country, are not dominated to such great extent by their parents or the age old traditions that have tended to keep the easterners in the grip of ignorance and superstitions. There is a general belief that the transplanting of the Orientals out of their native lands eventually will develop a new and more efficient race.

Farmers Advised To Use Accrual Basis

Farmers, in computing income tax returns, may find it to their advantage to use the "accrual basis" or inventory system, it is pointed out by C. R. Arnold of the department of rural economics of the Ohio State university. Farmers have the choice of reporting on a basis of cash receipts and expenditures, or upon a basis of the inventory taken at the end of each year.

For the inventory or "accrual basis" the gross profits are obtained by adding the inventory value of livestock and products on hand at the end of the year, the amount received from the sale of stock and products and other miscellaneous items such as hire of teams, machinery and the like during the year, and deducting from this sum the inventory value of stock and products on hand at the beginning of the year plus the cost of stock and produce purchased during the year. The farm expense will be the actual expenses incurred during the year, whether paid or not.

Upon the basis of records of cash receipts and disbursements, the farmer may in a given year run his receipts very high by holding over a crop or produce or livestock and selling that commodity as well as the crop of the current year. This will be avoided by the accrual basis method, which shows the steady growth from year to year if a man will keep annual inventories with his record of receipts and expenses.

UNDERTAKERS THRIVE ON CARELESS EATERS

By Royal S. Copeland, M. D.

"Since our wives have gone to work, we men are being fed out of brown paper parcels and cans. Scientists tell us that men are what they eat. What are we men going to become if our wives keep us on a delicatessen diet?"

This is a quotation from a book I read recently. It makes me think as well as smile.

Certainly there never will be a time when unsatisfactory substitutes for real food will replace honest victuals. We must have meat and potatoes, bread and butter, fresh vegetables and fruit. Brown paper parcels and cans cannot put old-fashioned foods out of business. Indeed we mustn't permit the effort to be made.

There is a real place for the products we buy in paper bags and cans. But they must not be eaten to the exclusion of fresh foods.

It is quite necessary, if you would have vigorous health, clear skin and bright eyes, to make daily demands upon the garden and orchard. It is possible now to find in the markets, even of the smaller towns, a bountiful selection of fruits and vegetables. In the country are found apples, winter pears, cabbages, carrots, turnips, celery and other fresh things. Oranges, grape fruit, grapes and other tropical or semi-tropical fruits are to be had.

Of course, splendid bread, meat products and other prepared foods can be purchased around the corner. The commercial canners and bakers have done wonders for humanity.

However, it is a great mistake to make a practice of living on "store foods" alone. At least twice a day you must sit down for an honest-to-goodness well cooked hot meal.

The people who rush through the day's work, eating a sandwich or a doughnut from the hand at lunch time, not stopping for rest and refreshment, are not fooling the undertaker a particle. He will be on the job several years before he should be needed.

Nothing is more important to health than regularity at meals, menus which are regularly and systematically good. Have a set

Tomorrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15

The Universe consists of an infinite number of forces and objects all linked together as one organic whole.

Astrological Theorem
A generally retarded and complicated state of affairs may be looked for according to the lunar transits. The solar influence, in aspect with Uranus, however, may bring about a certain indefinite commotion the nature of which it is difficult to foresee. It may mean change, but there are obstructions which may be overcome by persistence and determination. Sign all papers with caution and be careful in verbal agreements as well. In personal matters there may be a tendency to depression and gloom.

Those whose birthday it is are confronted by a year in which there may be stubborn obstacles to overcome by patience and perseverance. Change and turmoil because of obstruction seem imminent, and the mental outlook may be gloomy. A child born on this day may be gifted with a determination and dogged perseverance as well as diligence with which to cope with many obstacles in life.

time for your meals, take time enough so you can eat leisurely. Make a pleasant ceremony of the meal.

I know men who are so busy making money that they have no time for deliberate eating. I have this to comment to make—these men will never have the pleasure of spending the money. They will die prematurely.

To live long and to live happily demands the proper eating of correctly chosen foods. It will pay you to observe this rule.

Answers to Health Questions

T. T. Q.—Why is my hair falling out in round bald spots as large as a half dollar? I am only 19 years of age.

A.—You are probably troubled with alopecia areata. This requires special treatment. For further information send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and repeat your question.

I. O. Q.—Would living with an exacting person cause great nervousness which can only be controlled by using the will power?

2.—What would cause a painful knee? The trouble is on the inside. A.—It may. Try to rise above the petty annoyances.

3.—May be due to a rheumatic condition. If there has been no injury such as might be caused by a blow or a fall, application of heat and gentle massage may be helpful. Be sure there is no infection in the system.

Town Ignores Plea Of British Peers For Bill's Payment

London, Feb. 14.—Charging a heavy fall of snow cost her a considerable sum of money because her guests were forced to extend their visit four days, Lady Peel, wife of Viscount Peel, First Commissioner of Works in the present government, has entered an extraordinary claim with the Petersfield Rural District council.

Lady Peel asks for approximately $35 for expenses incurred in employing men to clear snow from the roads in the neighborhood of her home, and demands that the council pay for the costs of cars to take her guests away, as well as the additional expense incurred in entertaining them during the four days they were snowbound.

The chairman of the council, C. W. Seward, said the snowstorm was clearly "an act of God" and advised the council to take no responsibility for it. The council unanimously agreed, and voted to ignore Lady Peel's claim.

SOCIETY

Mrs. King Elected New President of Music Study Club

Mrs. L. W. King was chosen president of the Music Study club at the annual business session held in connection with an enjoyable meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. H. E. Stiver, Cleveland ave. Other officers are:

First vice president, Mrs. J. W. Hendricks; second vice president, Mrs. Robert Greenberger; secretary, Mrs. Calvin Leasure; treasurer, Mrs. H. E. Stiver; members of the executive committee, Mrs. J. W. Stiver and Mrs. Charles Connolly. These officers will serve for the 1928-29 season.

Valentine decorations beautified the home. A delicious casserole supper was enjoyed.

The program included these numbers: Vocal solos, "Memories of Love and You," and "I Pass by Your Window," Mrs. S. J. Menzel; readings, "The Ole Danjo" and "Mrs. Harigan at the Phone," Mrs. Frank Griffin; piano solos, "Arabesque" and "The Lark Song," Miss Hilda Franke; piano solos, "All the Things Almond" and "Oriental," Miss L. Vaughn Simpson.

A meeting on Feb. 27 will be at the home of Mrs. F. J. Steudt, South Union st.

Birthday Surprise
Mrs. Elizabeth Dolan was complimented with a delightful surprise party Monday evening at her home, Depot st., to make happy her 74th birthday anniversary. About 60 of her friends were interested in the event.

Cards and music were diversions of the happy occasion and Mrs. Emma Rogers, daughter of the honoree, served a two-course lunch. Mrs. Dolan received many gifts.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Collins, East Liverpool; Mrs. Sealey, Leetonia; Mrs. Nellie Quinlan, Canton; and Mrs. C. J. Curley, of Cleveland.

Birthday Party
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kelly, of Green st., entertained at a party Sunday at their home honoring the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Edith Kelly, Miss Verda Hopewell and Mrs. Floyd Bykes.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kelly, North Georgetown rd.; Mr. and Mrs. Gus Mopnick and family, Winona rd.; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bykes and Miss Wilma Hines, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jackson and family, Leetonia; Miss Dorothy Reio, Alliance; Miss Mary Godward, of Winona; and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hanna, of Atwater.

Marriage Licenses
A marriage license has been issued to Mike Lee Smith, a laborer residing at Salem, and Vera Burson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burson of Salem. They were married at Lisbon by Justice of the Peace M. K. Zimmerman.

A license has been issued to William T. Beaver, a machinist, residing at Lisbon, and Alice E. DeVille, a stenographer, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward DeVille, also of Lisbon. They will be married at St. George's church by the Rev. Brown.

Mary and Martha Guild
Members of the Mary and Martha guild of the Presbyterian church met Monday evening at the home of Miss Hilda Talbot, East High st.

At this time a letter of appreciation was read from Rev. Collins, missionary to India, for a Christmas box sent from the guild to the mission.

The hostess served refreshments at the social period. On March 12 the members will meet with Miss Mildred Tate, Cleveland ave.

Entertain Groups
That their members might become better acquainted with each other, Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Evans, the former of whom is pastor of the Christian church, are entertaining groups from the membership of this church each Monday evening at their home, East Seventh st. The time is enjoyed informally.

Last night's social was the fourth of the series and there probably will be three more. The groups are selected in alphabetical order.

Anniversary Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Redinger, West Green st., entertained at a dinner Sunday evening to celebrate the fourth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lodge. Valentine novelties made the table attractive. Music and "500" were diversions of the evening.

Besides the honorees the guests included Mrs. Anna Redinger and daughter, Marguerite and son, Joseph, of New Albany.

Monday Afternoon Club
Mrs. T. C. Read, 1000 West 10th, Glendale ave., Monday afternoon to her associates of the Monday Afternoon club. They enjoyed the hours informally with needlework and a lunch was served.

Mrs. A. O. Silver left Tuesday for Columbus, to spend a week visiting with relatives there and in other cities near the state capital.

Mrs. C. J. Curley, of Cleveland, and Mrs. Nellie Quinlan, of Canton, are visiting their sister, Mrs. Martin Kaley, Jennings.

Mrs. Robert Zeller and children, Mrs. Helen Bell and William Bates of Salem, spent Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Daugherty, Columbiana.

Mrs. Mary Snyder of East Fifth st., who is ill at her home, is reported to be slowly improving.

Surprise Party

Miss Virginia Simpson was pleasantly surprised Saturday afternoon when a group of girl friends held a party at her home, Franklin ave., to celebrate her birthday anniversary.

Dancing and bridge entertained and a lunch was served. A color scheme of red and white and Valentine novelties were used in the decorations. Miss Simpson received a birthday cake and many other gifts.

Misses Dorothy Loch, Jean Marsden, Aletha Armstrong and Florence Binsley of Lisbon were out of town guests.

Luther League

Members of the Luther League of the English Lutheran church met Monday evening at the church. Games, music and contests entertained and a lunch was served. Valentine novelties were used for decorations.

At the business meeting the constitution was read and adopted.

The next meeting will be held the second Monday in March.

Mrs. Robert Pearson and baby daughter of Akron are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Alfoller, McKinley ave.

Mrs. M. Paul of Cleveland is visiting her father, Thomas McNamara who is seriously ill of pneumonia at the Central Clinic hospital.

Mrs. Jessie Dixon of Alliance spent Monday afternoon with her sister, Mrs. Lila Nease, West Perry ave.

Mrs. B. P. Hansell has returned to her home, Fair st., after spending several days in New York city on business.

Miss Holly Daugherty who is ill at her home, New Albany, is slightly improved.

DUTY ON HIT
AND MISS RAG
RUGS RAISED

Washington, Feb. 14.—President Coolidge today issued a proclamation increasing the duty on imported rag rugs of the type known as "hit and miss" to 35 per cent ad valorem based on the selling price in the United States. They have hitherto been 35 per cent based on the foreign price.

The action was taken by the president to offset Japanese competition. Rag rugs in the United States are made principally by women living in the mountain districts of New England and certain southern states.

LORD ASQUITH CONDITION IS VERY SERIOUS

London, Feb. 14.—The Earl of Oxford and Asquith's condition remained unchanged early today, according to a bulletin issued by his physicians.

Lord Asquith is seriously ill at his country estate, The Wharf in Salisbury. His condition is so grave that it was feared he would not live through the night.

Great Britain's former premier is suffering from an acute attack of pleurisy. He was unconscious throughout most of the night.

had been extended to the company to move to Alliance and other cities.

Efforts Rewarded
The citizens committee worked late into the night over the weekend, and their efforts were rewarded early last evening when the decision finally was made at the meeting.

This is the second time that the plan has been extended to the Sanitary plant. In the fall of 1922, three weeks after Mr. Barton had come here to take charge, things looked dark for some time. But money was raised and much work was done by a committee, the result of this being that the plant was rebuilt.

Preliminary figures on the new building have been received here and the details are now being worked out.

Steel Building
The building is to be of steel, and will be a modern, up-to-date structure of the unit type. By using the unit method of construction, additions can be made easily at any time.

More floor space than was accessible in the burned building will be available in the new plant.

Approximately 225 employees of the plant are notified through The News today of the company's decision, which appears in a large advertisement of the concern. The statement of President Barton is as follows:

Barton's Statement
The board of directors of the National Sanitary Co. have authorized the re-establishment of the plant in this city. Contracts for new modern buildings and equipment especially adapted to our use will be let as soon as possible and work rushed to completion.

We propose to re-establish our organization as it existed before the fire and Mr. Leister will use as many of the former employees as possible in this reconstruction work.

The rebuilding of this plant has been made possible by the extraordinary efforts on the part of citizens and merchants in this town. They have given their time and money and the appreciation must be given them for their efforts.

NERVE FAILS AS HE KILLS WIFE

Hammer Slayer Declares They Entered Into Death Pact

New York, Feb. 14.—"I killed her. She knew I was going to do it. I intended to kill myself, too."

"She was fully awake. We joined in a short prayer. Then I struck her over the head with a hammer. I walked to a window. I was going to jump out—but I lost my nerve."

In these words, Cecil Clyde Campbell, 43, a former army major, confessed in Philadelphia, where he is under arrest today, that it was he who beat his wife, Mary Loy MacLean Campbell, to death in Room 1108 of the Grand hotel, New York city, a week ago.

Campbell, a tall, powerful man with a ready smile, declared that he and his life stayed at the Grand hotel several days, all the while discussing his financial difficulties, and finally agreeing to "end our lives."

"She looked up into my eyes and smiled just before I struck her," he declared.

Campbell insisted he was the husband of the woman with whom he had registered at the Grand hotel as "Mr. and Mrs. T. M. James of Troy, N. Y." She was 40 years old and was not his common law wife, he said. He had been divorced by his first wife, Mrs. Cornelia Campbell of Portland, Me.

LENDEL CASE

no objections offered by the state. Salemites On Jury

When court adjourned for the noon recess those jurors in the box were:

Blanche Betts, Salem; Frank Kannal, New Waterford; farmer; Hayes Siller, Leetonia; farmer; Samuel Burgess, East Liverpool; potter; John Floding, Leetonia; butcher; John Stratton, Salem; lumber company manager; George Boice, East Liverpool; butcher; Clarence Fisher, Lisbon; laborer; Jude Roach, Salem; Delmer Hoover, East Palestine; bookkeeper; Hugh L. McNeal, East Liverpool; manufacturer.

John S. Booth, Rogers, farmer, was the first juror to be examined from the special venire. He had conscientious objections to capital punishment and was excused.

Second Venire Drawn
That a jury of 12 men and women will be permanently seated sometime Tuesday was apparent as the first day of the trial ended.

When Judge Lones adjourned court at 4:30 p. m., Monday the panel was filled with 11 men and one woman tentatively chosen. At that time 52 of the 88 names available from the original list of 75 had been questioned and either accepted or rejected.

When it became apparent that it would be impossible to complete the jury with the first venire, a second venire of 25 names was ordered drawn from the jury wheel by the court.

Those drawn are: John S. Booth, Rogers; J. M. Arbuthnot, East Liverpool; Frank Irwin, East Palestine; Don Lyons, East Liverpool; R. F. D. Mattie Pizer, Lisbon; Sue J. Jack, East Liverpool; W. E. Knox, Wellsville; Harry W. Cordway, East Liverpool; Lee S. Deemer, Lisbon; Helen H. Henson, East Liverpool; Kirby Wilson, Salem; R. B. Thompson, Salem; E. A. Pabel, East Leetonia; George H. Huston, Lisbon; C. W. Powell, East Liverpool; E. M. Peters, Salem; John Moon, East Palestine; Harry Myers, Kensington; Nettie Fessler, Columbiana; Joseph H. Andrews, East Liverpool; L. C. Chaplin, East Palestine; C. S. Lincoln, East Palestine; Nellie Hart, Salineville; John Culp, Columbiana; Dan Duty, Wellsville.

Serve New Jurors
Sheriff George Wright and Deputy Sheriff Lawrence Kindsvatter, as soon as this new list of jurors was transferred to the office bearing the official seal of Clerk of Courts Frank Ballantine immediately started into the field to obtain personal service on the new venire.

Each side had exhausted half of the peremptory challenges when court adjourned, the state exhausting two and the defense eight of the 15 allowed the defendant. The state is allowed four challenges only.

In the event that a jury is sworn by noon today, the state will immediately move for an order directing Sheriff Wright to take the jury to Canton.

The defense is understood to be willing to forego that formality, but no doubt the request of the prosecution will be granted by the court. Should this rule hold good, the jury will go to Canton this afternoon.

Testimony will then begin Wednesday morning. No witnesses are to be served by the office of Sheriff Wright, all this week settling upon the office of Sheriff Ed C. C. of Stark county, who has been at Lisbon since the case opened Monday morning.

Jurors in the box at the close of court Monday afternoon were: Dr. Todd, Blanche Betts, Frank Kannal, Hayes Siller, Samuel Burgess, Charles S. Ward, J. Norman Votter, John Stratton, George Boice and Clarence Fisher. Blanche Betts of Salem was the only woman remaining seated in the box, although during the day many others had taken their seats but were challenged.

Judging from the attitude of attorneys on both sides, a hard-fought legal battle may be expected when the time for taking testimony comes.

Comed for the defendant has placed a dictaphone machine in court, it being the first time the use has been carried in effect in a court case in this county.

The machine is being used, by counsel to keep a record of certain testimony during the progress of the trial, and by reference to notes made at the time memory can be refreshed by the exact words of the witness.

Poison Pen Case

Top photo is of Sarah Mowell, 21, bank clerk of Ridgewood, N. J., who is accused of sending poison pen notes to Mrs. F. A. Von Moschleske (lower).

The prosecution is trying to establish that the 21-year-old defendant and 50-year-old plaintiff were rivals for the affections of a young salesman.

Woman's Ability To Draw Caricatures
Will Prove Claim

London, Feb. 14.—"If Mme. Anastasia Tchaikovsky is able to draw clever caricatures, her claim to be Grand Duchess Anastasia, daughter of the late Czar of Russia, is more likely to be true, according to a Morning Post interview with Mrs. E. J. Franks, of Guildford, who visited Petrograd in 1911, where she made the acquaintance of Prof. Epps, English tutor to the czar's daughters."

Mrs. Franks said Prof. Epps often remarked on Anastasia's pronounced talent for drawing caricatures. He revealed that lessons were frequently interrupted by the grand duchess dashing to the palace window to caricature people on the street.

The Morning Post writer suggested that Margaretta Eager, former nursery governess of the Russian Royal family, who is now in England, examine Mme. Tchaikovsky, as she knew Anastasia intimately when the latter was a young girl.

Failed Because Of Nervousness

Stamina, Force, Power, Ambition, Persistence of Purpose—All Are Lacking.

Don't grow old before your time. Don't let nervousness wreck your happiness or chances in life. The man with strong steady nerves is full of vigor, energy, ambition and confidence.

You can have nerves of steel, firm step, new courage and keen mind by putting nerves in first-class shape with mighty LifeOne Tablets, a new discovery, inexpensive and efficient.

Men and women who get up so tired in the morning that they have to drag themselves to their daily labor will in just a few days arise with clear mind, definite purpose and loads of ambition.

All you have to do is to take two LifeOne Tablets after each meal and two at bedtime for two weeks.

Then if your energy and endurance haven't increased, if your mind isn't clearer and eyes brighter, if you don't feel ambitious as of old, The J. H. Lease Drug Co. or any druggist anywhere will return the purchase price—gladly and freely.

NATION'S EYES

the Willis machine in Ohio must win if it is to survive with any semblance of prestige.

Anything like a smashing defeat for Hoover would be well-nigh disastrous to his candidacy. It would dispel, as in one breath, the claims of his managers that "he is the choice of the people, if not of the politicians."

By the same token anything approaching a decisive victory would so enhance his prestige as a candidate that it might result in a band-wagon movement of nationwide proportions that would be irresistible.

Any candidate who can go into a state so thoroughly organized politically as Ohio and defeat the organization leadership cannot have his strength any longer doubted—that, at least, is the way the Washington rail-birds are arguing.

The Willis people, meanwhile, are not idle. If Hoover does not soon repudiate Senator Borah's prohibition questionnaire Willis is going to make a speech in Ohio calling attention to Hoover's silence on this most sensitive issue.

Borah Only Unanswered
Borah addressed a letter to Hoover and Willis a week ago asking where they stood on prohibition. He asked whether they favored modification of the Volstead law, the repeal of the 18th amendment, whether they favored inclusion of a bone-dry plank in the Republican platform, and finally he asked them to explain their attitude toward enforcement.

Willis replied instantly and enthusiastically that he was bone-dry and favored prohibition that really would prohibit.

Hoover left for the south without replying to the Borah letter. Now that he is an avowed candidate, the letter must soon be answered.

There is little on record concerning Hoover's attitude on the prohibition controversy. Some months ago he endorsed the economic benefits of prohibition, as reflected in greater industrial production and general prosperity among the workers, but upon the moral and political side of prohibition he has maintained an attitude of silence.

WIFE REFUSES TO RETURN, HE DRINKS POISON

Detroit, Feb. 14.—Major Robert Kirk McLeod, 33, veteran airplane pilot of the World war and operator of the McLeod Brothers Air Transport Service of California, tried to commit suicide here today in a restaurant by swallowing poison after his wife had refused his plea to come back to him. He is in a serious condition.

"She will never have another chance to come back to me," Major McLeod vowed from his bed. "If I recover from this attempt I will do it again."

McLeod had flown from the Pacific coast to effect a reconciliation with his wife.

Death Penalty For Slayer Is Demand

Cleveland, Feb. 14.—The death penalty was to be demanded for Anthony Vontez, 19, charged with the slaying of Alice Preskar, 19, by Assistant County Prosecutor John Luthringer, in charge of the case, as Vontez's trial opened here today.

Luthringer declared he would base his demand on the first degree indictment by the grand jury.

Miss Preskar, who had been keeping company with Vontez, was shot and killed January 9 at her home after she and Vontez returned from a dance, it was alleged.

Hoover To Testify In Flood Control

Washington, Feb. 14.—The senate commerce committee today voted 7 to 6 to call Secretary of Commerce Hoover before it to testify on flood control problems.

Senator Willis, Ohio's "favorite son" candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, was instrumental in securing the request for Hoover's appearance. Hoover will enter the Ohio primary lists against Willis.

The committee voted behind closed doors and the roll call was withheld.

STRONG AND ACTIVE

New York Feb. 14.—Strength and activity of the copper and steel stocks featured the opening of the market today. General Motors led the automobile stocks, with a gain of 11 points at 138 1/2.

Anascond Copper sold up 1 1/2, at 58 1/2; Smelters up 1/2, at 182 1/2; Greene Cananea up 1/2, at 135 1/2; Bethlehem Steel up 3/4, at 60 1/2; U. S. Steel up 1/2, at 145 1/2; Montgomery Ward up 1 point at 144 1/2; and Westinghouse up 1 1/2, at 97 1/2. General Asphalt led the specialties with a 5-point jump to 81 1/2. The oils were under pressure and fell at 1 1/2, and Southwest at 1/2, at 71 1/2.

Leadership of moderate advance in stock prices at the beginning of trading today was furnished by the steel and copper stocks, as representatives of the industries making the most favorable showing in current operations. The motor stocks were also inclined to a slightly higher price level, but weakness again cropped out in the oils and specialties, the former being unsettled on rumors that the dividend on Phillips Petroleum and other well known oil stocks was in danger.

The department of commerce reported a favorable balance of $73,000,000 in the January foreign trade with total exports of $411,000,000 and imports of $338,000,000 last month. For the seven-months period ended January 31, America's favorable balance was $509,000,000 out of a total export and import trade of $5,309,000,000.

The best domestic industrial reports of the new week came from steel and copper trades. U. S. Steel Corporation's were reported operating at 89 per cent of capacity, a gain of 22 per cent since mid-December, notwithstanding which the unfilled orders of the big steel producer increased 300,000 tons in January. Surplus copper metal above ground has been gradually dwindling and the statistical position of the industry is improving.

Weakness in Phillips Petroleum was the feature of the oils, the stock sinking to a new low around 95 1/2, on rumors of the probable discontinuance of the $3 annual dividend. Standard Oils on the curb and the big board bent before the renewal of the persistent professional selling which has been in progress for the last two weeks. The industrial as a whole developed a reactionary tone near the end of the first hour and the whole list moved downward.

Call money was unchanged at 4 1/2 per cent.

SHOOT'S WIFE'S SISTER, TURNS GUN ON HIMSELF

Wife Told Him to Choose Between Them; Shooting Follows

Detroit, Feb. 14.—"I told him to choose between us."

This was the statement made to police today by Mrs. Edith Rath, whose husband shot and killed her sister, Miss Catherine McAnulla, in a beauty parlor and then turned the gun on himself, inflicting wounds from which he died.

Rath forced his way into the beauty parlor and, after searching through several booths, some of which were occupied by customers, found Miss McAnulla and fired three shots into her body.

Women customers ran screaming from the place attracting hundreds of office workers to the scene.

Mrs. Rath said her sister came here from Akron, Ohio, four years ago, and lived at their home for more than a year.

"More than two years ago I learned that he was going around with another woman," Mrs. Rath said.

"I did not know who the woman was until shortly after Christmas I was assured. When I confronted my husband he admitted or forgave me. I arranged a meeting of the three of us and my husband swore he would be faithful. Catherine promised not to bother him again."

"But she kept trying to lead him away from me and finally threatened him. I told my husband to choose between us, but I did not dream he would take such a terrible step."

Furniture Plant, Lumber Yard Burn

Washington, C. H., Feb. 14.—Loss of $100,000 was reported at Greenfield, Highland county, today, following a fire which destroyed a part of the yards of the Greenfield Lumber company and the Gray & Elliot Furniture company plant. A residence was destroyed. It was reported that the fire originated in a lacquer room of the furniture company. The fire department of Washington, C. H., aided in checking the blaze.

Obituary

MRS. H. R. WELLER

Mrs. Charlotte B. Weller, resident of Youngstown for 22 years and wife of H. R. Weller, superintendent of the State-City Employment Service died in the Youngstown Hospital Sunday following an operation. She resided at 427 Boston ave.

Born in Columbiana in 1884, the daughter of Sylvester and Sarah Hetrick Harrold, she spent her early life in that city. She was married 23 years ago to H. R. Weller.

Mrs. Weller was a member of St. Luke's Lutheran church and was an active member of the Ladies' Loyal Workers' society.

She leaves the following children: Robert H., Charles A., Richard A., Thelma and Isabel, all at home; and a sister, Mrs. Fred Lipp, Columbiana, and one brother, E. M. Harrold, New Waterford.

Funeral service will be held at the residence at 1 p. m. Wednesday with later service at 1:30 p. m. at St. Luke's Lutheran church. Burial will be in Columbiana with Rev. W. J. Kratz in charge.

WILLIAM MCGALE

William McGale, 31, World war veteran, Cleveland formerly of Columbiana, died Monday afternoon of a complication of diseases at Cleveland.

The body was removed to Fry's funeral home, Columbiana. The funeral at 2 p. m. Thursday will be at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary McGale, Columbiana; interment in the Columbiana cemetery.

Mr. McGale, who was born in Philadelphia, had spent most of his life in Columbiana. Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Mary McGale, three brothers and four sisters: John, Mansfield; Walter, Tacoma, Wash.; Lawrence, South Dakota; Mrs. Russell Baker, of Beaver Falls, Pa.; Mrs. Ira Hetrick and Mrs. Warren Chain, of Columbiana, and Helen, at home.

MRS. HATTIE A. FREY

Mrs. Hattie A. Frey, 68, widow of Henry Frey, died at 10:30 p. m. Monday at the Central Clinic hospital, where she was taken a week ago today, at which time she suffered a paralytic stroke.

Mrs. Frey was born in Minnesota, Pa., and lived there until her marriage. For a number of years she lived in Leetonia, where her husband had a store. She had been a resident of Salem for 15 years. She was a member of the First Church of Christ, Christian Science, Boston.

Surviving is one sister, Mrs. Frank McNut, Allegan, Mich. The funeral will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at the Arbogast funeral home, and will be a Christian Science service, interment in Hope cemetery.

Friends can view the body at the Arbogast funeral home any time. The home will be open Wednesday evening for that purpose.

LYOYD HOUSEHOLDER

Lloyd Hess Householder, 72, died at 2 p. m. Monday at the Central Clinic hospital after a week's illness of influenza.

Mr. Householder is survived by his widow, Mrs. Harriett Householder, three children: Bertha Lucie, Lloyd Jr., and Clyde Vernal, two brothers, William D. of Carrollton and Paul E. of Pittsburgh; one sister, Mrs. Mildred Best of Alliance; and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Householder of Carrollton.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at the home, 205 East Pershing ave., and at 2:30 p. m. at the Presbyterian church with Dr. P. H. Gordon in charge; interment in Hope cemetery. Friends may call at the home from 7 until 9 p. m. Wednesday.

SINCLAIR AIDS DEMOCRAT FUND

Washington, Feb. 14.—The senate's search for traces of the Continental Trading company's mysterious $3,080,000 Liberty Bond "slush fund" was turned today toward the Democratic National committee's "war chest" for the 1920 campaign.

The senate public lands committee will subpoena Wilbur March, former treasurer of the Democratic committee, and other officials. It was learned to determine whether Harry F. Sinclair gave the Democrats any of his share of the Continental bonds. The committee already has learned that a $75,000 gift by Sinclair to the Republican National committee in 1923, included Continental bonds.

Sinclair himself told of making contributions to the Democratic "war chest" while testifying at the old Teapot Dome inquiry in 1923. He told them of giving the Democrats a contribution but could not recall the amount.

What is the theory of making contributions to both parties? he was asked.

"I have friends in both parties," Sinclair replied, "and while I am a Republican or am supposed to be, sometimes I am a Democrat. I was urged by the Democratic treasurer to make a contribution."

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

A musical recital was on the program in assembly this morning. Mrs. Steve Odoran opened the recital with two selections, "My Curly Headed Baby" and "The Cuckoo Clock." She has a rich soprano voice and easily reached her high notes. Mrs. Odoran concluded the program with another beautiful number.

Mrs. Hudson rendered three piano solos, "Lullaby," "Spanish Dance" and a Mozart composition. The entire program was well received.

WINONA

A community hard time party was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Moore. Those attending were dressed appropriate to the occasion and the hours were enjoyed at games. Refreshments were served.

Albert and Leona Smith of Toledo were here for the week end. Walter Livezey and family of Courtland, visited here Sunday.

Willie Whinnery was in Pittsburgh over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Weaver spent Sunday in Salem with his parents.

13 ON TRIAL IN FLOGGING CASES IN RALEIGH, N. C.

Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 14.—Thirteen men are scheduled to face trial in Wake superior court here the week of February 20, charged with the sensational flogging in December, 1926 of Dolly Jones, country storekeeper, and Sam Green, his negro helper.

According to Solicitor Leon S. Brassfield who will head the prosecution, it is very likely that due to the brevity of the special term of court, the 13 defendants will be tried all at once, instead of singly.

Such a procedure was to have been followed here recently when 16 men were to have faced trial on flogging charges, but gained acquittal when the grand jury refused to indict them a second time after a flaw was detected at the last minute in the first indictments against them.

Call Special Term
The special term of court was called by Governor McLean mainly for the trial of the flogging cases, and it was expected that they will take precedence over everything else on the court docket.

Two defendants in the Jones-Green flogging case have been tried separately, and both gained speedy acquittals after the juries trying them had listened for the better part of a week to voluminous testimony and lengthy summations. Those acquitted were Leland Rogers and G. A. Belshe, county road camp supervisor.

The men scheduled to go on trial this month are: Dr. J. R. Hester, prominent Knightdale physician; Clyde Weathers, a deputy sheriff; Lothario Stell, Eddie Robertson, Wiley O'Neil, Jr., John Hammerick, Bennie Weathers, Paul Hester, Paul Robertson, J. T. Ramsey, Leroy Hester, John Hester and Charlie Hester, Jr.

32 Flogging Cases
With the disposal of these cases, the Wake county court docket will be virtually cleared of flogging cases, which at the beginning of the year totalled 32. Three men also stand indicted for the flogging of a farmer who was charged of an immorality charge in court.

The wholesale indictments for floggings that had occurred in Wake county over a period of four years virtually under the shadow of the North Carolina state capital, resulted from a long investigation by the grand jury.

Thus far, however, a conviction has never been obtained.

Thousands Inspect Frenchmen's Plane

Roosevelt Field, N. Y., Feb. 14.—Thousands of holiday visitors came to the field today to inspect the monoplane "Nungesser-Coll" in which Lieut.-Commander Joseph Lebrun and Lieut. Dieudonne Costes, French aviators, flew across the South Atlantic on their round-about trip from Paris to New York.

Neither flier was at the field today. The plane was under heavy military guard.

Endurance Flyers Are Delayed Again

Port Worth, Texas, Feb. 14.—Pilots Al Henley and Joe Hart, Oklahoma aviators who hope to break the world's flight endurance record in their giant Ryan monoplane "The Port Worth," were again forced to postpone their hop-off today. Rain and the soggy condition of the runway were responsible for the second postponement.

PROBE OF OHIO MINES AWAITED BY OPERATORS

Eastern Ohio Operators Discuss Conditions But Await Action

Cleveland, Feb. 14.—All of the officers of the Eastern Ohio Coal Operators Association today held the same positions for 1928, having been re-elected at the annual meeting of the association here yesterday.

The officers re-elected included: Ezra Van Horn, president; W. L. Robinson, vice president; H. L. Sullivan, treasurer and D. F. Hurd, secretary.

The operators met behind closed doors and refused to divulge what happened at the session except that there was a general discussion of the Ohio coal situation. Several operators who attended the meeting were of the opinion that it would be unwise to comment on present conditions, they said, until congress acts on a resolution asking for a congressional investigation in the Ohio and Pennsylvania bituminous coal fields.

It was revealed that the operators organizations are ready to select committees from their organizations and go to Washington to present their side of the controversy before various congressional committees.

It was also revealed that a number of operators were in favor of fighting through to the "bitter end," rather than accede to the union miners' demand for a return to the Jacksonville agreement.

At least 16 of the larger mines represented in the association, it was pointed out, are now in operation with non-union labor and it was said that some of them are producing 2,000 or more tons daily. The member mines of the association are in Belmont, Harrison and Jefferson counties, in the heaviest coal producing section of Ohio.

Coshocton—Marshall Mariatt, 29, Arthur Mobley, 19, and John Mattimore, 17, signed confessions here recently, according to police, that they sawed support of trestles at the Warwick mine near here so that would be wrecked when the coal cars reached the weakened place. They are held for investigation.

Leap Year A Fizzle As Marriages Drop Far Below Average

Cleveland, Feb. 14.—Leap Year here is a "flop."

At least this is the view of several "marrying" justices of the peace, who, for the past eleven years have participated at hundreds of marriage ceremonies.

"Leap year is something to laugh about, nothing more," said Justice of the Peace W. J. Zoul. "I feel," said Justice of the Peace J. E. Chizek, proprietor of the only magistrate's marriage parlor in the state, "that we all would be better off without leap year. It's the bunk."

To show how bad "business" is, Marriage License Clerk Frank Zizelman, supplied a few "figures." In January 1928 he sold but 570 marriage licenses, as compared with 707 for the same month a year ago.

SCOUT COLUMN

Troop 2
Troop 2 held its meeting Thursday night at 7:30. There were 13 scouts present, with four visitors. Gerald Harshman was voted into the troop and William McCandless was initiated.

The two patrols passed inspection with 125 good turns during the week. The two patrols questioned each other in regard to the first six scout laws. A hike was planned for Feb. 22 to the scout reservation for all day, and there are expected to be many tests passed on this trip.

Chicago—President Coolidge has been sent a suit of pajamas in appreciation of his economy program. The presidential pajamas are made of five flour bags, and were sent by the women's society of the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church.

To The Employees of the National Sanitary Co.

The Board of Directors of the National Sanitary Company have authorized the re-establishment of the plant in this city. Contracts for new modern buildings and equipment especially adapted to our work will be let as soon as possible and work rushed to completion.

We propose to re-establish our organization as it existed before our fire and Mr. Lieder will use as many of the former employees as possible in this reconstruction work.

The rebuilding of this plant has been made possible by the extraordinary efforts on the part of citizens and merchants in this town. They have given their time and money and due appreciation must be given them for their efforts.

YOUTHS BLAMED IN MAJORITY OF SERIOUS CRIMES

Research Director Claims
Prohibition Has Led To This Stage

Cleveland, Feb. 14.—The responsibility for the most serious crime problem in the United States today—the burglaries and robberies committed by youths under 21 years of age—is blamed on prohibition by Dr. Raymond Moley, research director of the New York State Crime committee and consultant to the Illinois association for criminal justice, who attended a three-day institute on the study of crime sponsored by the Women's City club here recently. Mr. Moley added that the enormous profits from bootlegging encourage organized crime.

"In a survey of 25,000 cases of burglaries and robberies, the majority had been committed by boys under 21," was Dr. Moley's startling assertion.

"It is almost impossible to give the reason for this low age. The minister says it is the lack of religion and the lawyers blame it on slow justice. I don't know what it is."

Popular Misconceptions

The New York criminologist outlined six popular misconceptions regarding crime as follows:

1. That juries are responsible for letting off criminals and that criminal trials by juries should be done away with.

2. That in determining sentences judges are infallible.

3. That the best known cases are the most important.

4. That heavy sentences deter crime.

5. That probation is sentimental.

6. That an efficient administration of justice is impossible without paying for it.

Dr. Moley suggested that judges should try criminal cases alone. However, he added, they should not be given the sole right to determine the length of sentence.

A plan was advocated by Dr. Moley, whereby a person to be tried can decide whether he wants to be tried by a jury or by a lone judge.

Agrees with Governor

He agreed with the opinion of Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York that sentences of criminals should be determined by psychiatrists or psychologists, assisted by investigators of the convicted persons.

"More and more cases are settled out of court in advance of the trial," Dr. Moley revealed. "More persons are pleading guilty. In New York City out of 5,600 indictments 64 per cent pleaded guilty. In Cleveland the percentage was 64 per cent; in St. Louis 58 per cent; Minneapolis 81 per cent, and in Atlanta 43 per cent."

When the salaries of the prosecuting attorneys, judges and all connected with the administration of justice are increased at twice what they are at present, more efficient justice will be meted out, Dr. Moley contended.

"You cannot expect a $3,000 assistant prosecutor to win from a $50,000 attorney for the defense, he explains."

Largest Telescope Made In U. S. to Be At Ohio Wesleyan

Delaware, O., Feb. 14.—Perkins telescope at Ohio Wesleyan university here will be the first large telescope ever entirely manufactured in the United States. This fact was assured when the Bureau of Standards at Washington recently announced that it had successfully cast the 70-inch disc, the largest single piece of optical glass ever made in the United States, from which the mirror for the Perkins telescope will be ground.

The disc just successfully cast was the fifth attempt by the Bureau of Standards since April, 1924.

The present huge disc was poured into its cast in March 1927 and has been gradually cooling since. It is 14 inches thick and weighs 3,500 pounds. The telescope mirror to be ground from the disc will be 61 inches in diameter and will weigh a ton and a half.

The telescope will not be completed for more than a year. Dr. C. C. Crump, director of Perkins observatory at Ohio Wesleyan, has stated for grinding the disc will require many months. The Perkins telescope which is the third largest reflector in the world, has been temporarily equipped with a 58-inch mirror borrowed from the Harvard observatory.

Girl From Childs Wins Job in Follies Chorus

PAULA PIERCE
(International Newswire)

FROM flapjacks to the front rank of the most beautiful collection of glorified American girls—that's the almost fictional story of pretty Paula Pierce, a demure and lovely Canadian girl.

Paula went to New York to make good in the big city. She took a job in one of the Childs restaurants, and here she "did her stuff," becoming quite adept at tossing flapjacks in the window, while a crowd always assembled outside, divided in their admiration for the edibles and the beauty of their compounder.

Then—one day—Florenz Ziegfeld, creator of the "Follies" and foremost beauty picker of the world, chanced along. "Ziggy" took one glance at the fair Paula—and the next day she was signed to a contract.

Paula's a brunette with a radiant smile and her figure is one that will gain attention, even in the midst of the "Follies" front row, noted for its curves.

SOUTH TO HAVE ABBEY IN HONOR OF FAMED SONS

Bronze Tablets Honoring Four Southerners To Be Unveiled

Fletcher, N. C., Feb. 14.—Bronze tablets commemorating four famous Southerners will be unveiled in the ivy-covered, time-mellowed "Westminster Abbey of the South" this summer.

The so-called Southern Westminster Abbey is at the Calvary Episcopal church, near here. Rev. Clarence Stuart McClellan, Jr., descendant of Gen. George B. McClellan, Yankee soldier, is rector.

Great southerners from General Robert E. Lee to Edgar Allan Poe will be commemorated in the little chapel, according to Rev. McClellan, who conceived the idea of a shrine dedicated to the poets, artists, musicians and statesmen of the south.

To Unveil Tablets
The forthcoming summer will see the unveiling of tablets to Zebulon Baird Vance, the famous North Carolina governor and statesman; Francis Scott Key, the Maryland soldier who composed "The Star-Spangled Banner" during the bombardment of Fort McHenry; Sidney Lanier, the Georgia poet, and Francis Fisher Tienan, woman novelist who wrote under the pseudonym of "Christian Reid."

The Vance tablet is the gift of the Jewish people of Asheville, N. C., while Herbert L. Satterlee, of New York, is the donor of the tablet to Francis Scott Key. The people of Macon, Ga., Lanier's birthplace, have donated the tablet that will be erected to him. Arthur Griffing of Asheville, N. C., gave the tablet to the North Carolina novelist, Christian Reid.

To Set Dates
The exact dates for the unveilings have not been decided upon, but Rev. McClellan said that the exercises would be held sometime during the summer months.

In 1929 memorials will be unveiled to Edgar Allan Poe, Henry Timrod, Francis O. Pickens, and Father Ryan. Other monuments of the future will be to Thomas Nelson Page, Joel Chandler Harris, John Estlin Cook and others.

When Rev. McClellan came to the aristocratic old church here four years ago he became interested in southern history, and the idea occurred to him that there were monuments enough to the south's war heroes, but that many of its statesmen, artists and musicians were unsung.

HUMAN FLIGHT IS CLAIMED BY RUSS INVENTOR

Uses Principle of Birds
In Manufacture of Flying Device

London, Feb. 14.—Captain Victor Dibovsky, formerly an aviator in the Imperial Russian service and the inventor of many airplane devices, believes that he has accomplished the "impossible"—human flight.

He declares he has designed a flying machine which embodies the soaring principles of flight of birds like the albatross, and that it will enable men to fly without any motive power save that generated by the aviator's own physical strength.

The machine, which has not yet been built, is designed to have a body length of 12 feet, a span of 25 feet and a weight of 150 pounds.

"My machine," Capt. Dibovsky declared in an interview with International News Service, "will enable a man to fly by himself, and be independent of the engine, petrol, oil and all elements connected with the present principles of flying. The man himself will be master of the air. He will rely only on the machine and his own power. He can remain in the air as long as he likes according to his desire or to his physical faculties."

Keeps Secret
Capt. Dibovsky has chosen to keep secret many of the details of his purported invention, but if his claims are true, he will have accomplished something which inventors from the time of Daedalus and Icarus have been trying unsuccessfully to do.

The inventor explains that in the construction of his machine he has followed closely all the elements of the simple and wonderful principles of flying disclosed by nature in the albatross. The position of a man on his machine is horizontal, the most suitable position for an economical use of his powers.

The organs of steering are concentrated in his hands and the organs of flapping in his legs. The body of the machine will have a special form with a minimum of resistance to the air, and will have on its surface a certain area of depression which will give automatic propulsion power. Such an area of depression in the body of the albatross makes it able to move forward against strong currents of air.

The only other detail of his machine which Capt. Dibovsky will disclose at this stage is that the plane will be flexible in all directions and horizontally moving pedals will be connected with flexible wings. He declares that by pushing the machine forward on an inclined smooth surface for 100 yards in calm weather it can rise from the ground and fly without difficulty, attaining an altitude of 3,000 feet.

15 to 25 Miles
"In calm weather," Capt. Dibovsky said, "my machine could reach a speed of between 15 and 25 miles an hour."

Were this picture of men of the future flapping their way through space by movements not dissimilar to swimming the dream of a mere visionary, it might be dismissed without consideration. But Capt. Dibovsky has shown his worth as a practical aviator, as well as an inventor, and his new claims have

The BABY

No mother in this enlightened age would give her baby something she did not know was perfectly harmless especially when a few drops of plain Castoria will right a baby's stomach and end almost any little ill. Prettiness and fever, too, it seems no time until everything is serene.

That's the beauty of Castoria! Its gentle influence seems just what is needed. It does all that castor oil might accomplish without shock to the system. Without the evil taste. It's delicious! Being purely vegetable you can give it as often as there's a sign of colic, constipation, diarrhea, or need to aid sound, natural sleep.

Just one warning: It is genuine Fletcher's Castoria that physicians recommend. Other preparations may be just as free from all doubtful drugs, but no child of this writer is going to test them! Besides, the book on care and feeding of babies that comes with Fletcher's Castoria is worth its weight in gold.

created a veritable sensation. His achievements include the invention of a synchronizing gear for firing through the proper of an airplane for which he was awarded $25,000 by the Royal Commission of Awards to Inventors. He has been concerned with flying since 1908 and received a gold medal from the All-Russian Aeronautical Society for his flight from Sebastopol to St. Petersburg, a distance of 1,800 miles. He served with the Russian Imperial Air Force in the war and received many decorations. He came to England as chief of the Russian Naval Aviation Commission and in 1918 went to America as a machine-gun expert. He plans to lecture here on his invention at an early date.

Unique Game Lost By East Liverpool

East Palestine Springs Surprise by Defeating River City Quintet, 12 to 10; County Title At Stake When Salem and Liverpool Meet Feb. 25

When Salem and East Liverpool High Boys teams meet here Feb. 25, it will be for the championship of Columbiana county.

That is certain, following the surprising defeat of East Liverpool Saturday night on Liverpool's home floor by the East Palestine quintet.

The score, 12 to 10, is only one indication of the unusual features of the contest, unique in county cage annals.

East Palestine went into the game to hold down the score. Coach Ward had vague hopes of victory, but very vague. His men were instructed to keep East Liverpool's points to a minimum.

The Brown passers followed out his instructions carefully. The ball was held every possible moment, and seldom passed, except to a Palestine player near at hand.

Center Mollenkopf popped in several so-called "lucky" shots from a distance and was the chief scorer for his team. Six goals were made by Palestine and five by Liverpool, no free throws being made.

According to East Liverpool, the game was exactly 12 minutes of actual playing in the scheduled 34. It was a slow, watchful waiting contest, and grabs the game as one of the most unusual ever played.

Salem lost the first of two games to Liverpool, but Salem gave Palestine a genuine pasting here. Liverpool also beat Palestine earlier on Palestine's floor. That throws the annual race into a muddle, and the title will depend on the outcome of the Feb. 25 battle here.

The Big Red will be out after their fourth consecutive county title in that game. Of course, Salem must win Friday at Wellsville to be still in the race.

East Liverpool defeated Wellsville, 15 to 12, Friday night.

304 GETS EVEN BREAK IN GAMES

No. 304 won an easy victory 31-7 over the 303 boys Monday at the High school gym. The absence of a good defense on the part of the 303 team accounted for the large score.

No. 304 opened up its scoring attack in the third period. Time after time the team cut through 303's defense to tip in shots. Often the ball was knocked to Hill at the tip-off and, there being no guards near, he easily put in many sucker shots.

Time of quarters—four minutes.

No. 304 went down to defeat at the hands of the 309 team, 12-11, Monday at the High school gym.

The No. 304 boys were tired from their noon struggle and it was not until the third quarter that they scored. In the fourth quarter staged an attack which at one time gave them a one-point lead, but Thomas dropped one through the loop just before the whistle blew and the victory went to 309.

Hill's long shots were the feature of the last quarter. Three times in the last minute of the game he pushed the sphere through the loop from the middle of the floor, but they did not top the score of 309.

U. S. FIFTH IN SKATING RACES

St. Moritz, Switzerland, Feb. 14.—Finland and Norway again took all the high honors in the Olympic speed skating championships here today when skaters from the northern countries won first, second and third places in the 1,500 meter races.

Clas Thunberg, Finland's champion, took first place with the fast time of 2 minutes 21.1 seconds. Yesterday he tied for first place in the 500 meter races.

Bernt Evensen, of Norway, was second with 2:21.9; and Ivar Balungrud, of the same country, took third place with 2:22.6.

The United States did not place before fifth. Eddie Murphy, of Chicago, held that position with his time of 2:25.9.

Of the other Americans, Valentine Bailais, the team captain, was sixth with 2:26.3; Irvin Jaffee of New York was next with 2:26.7; and O'Neil Farrell of Chicago came in eighth with 2:26.8.

SPORTS

Cincinnati, Feb. 14.—Ivy Wingo, former catcher of the Reds, has signed a contract as coach and assistant manager. It was announced here today Wingo, last year manager of the Columbus (O.) Senators, cellar champions of the American association.

New York, Feb. 14.—Princess Doreen, the seven-year-old mare who was unplaced only 28 times in 94 starts, has been retired to stud of the Audley farms stables. During her days of competition she won more than $174,000 in five seasons.

The former record of money won by mares was held by the Dwyer brothers' Miss Woodford, who won $118,270 and the mark stood for 49 years until broken by Princess Doreen.

Princess Doreen started in 94 races during her five years of racing and was a winner in 34 of them.

New York, Feb. 14.—The University of Pennsylvania's brilliant basketball team today holds undisputed possession of first place in the Eastern Intercollegiate Basketball League. The Quakers swamped the last place Columbia five here last night, 37 to 16.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 14.—New Jersey may no longer be a game preserve in which ring champions find sanctuary. The New Jersey state assembly has passed by the overwhelming vote of 42 to 3, a bill permitting 15-round boxing contests to a decision. The bill now goes to the senate.

St. Moritz, Switzerland.—For protection against tampering bob sleds to be used in Olympic competition are to be kept in sheds under lock and key. The United States became a favorite for the bobbed event by taking first and third places in the annual St. Moritz derby.

SALEM TO PLAY AT WELLSVILLE FRIDAY NIGHT

Need Victory to Keep In Title Race; Kent Here Saturday Night

Someone has said that the second bite often is not as good as the first, but to Salem High victories Friday night at Wellsville will be both appetizing and necessary.

In order to still be counted in on the title race, the Boys and Girls teams of the Red and Black school must dish up two wins this week on the Orange and Black's floor.

Salem Boys won, 29 to 22, and the Girls, 29 to 14, in games here recently. The Boys game indicated that the Big Red will have to fight hard to win out on Wellsville's floor, but the Girls should come out on top.

The Wellsville games rate in importance with the clash of the Boys with Kent State here, and of the Girls at Lisbon Saturday night.

Kent State High dropped Salem in a close game at Kent in December before the regular season started. Neither team had got started for the year in proper shape, but Kent, with five of eight members of the squad which won the Ohio Class B title last year, showed great promise.

Salem, though a Class A school, will find in Kent, a B school, a far harder opponent than most of the Class A teams the Big Red has met this year on the Salem floor. Kent is endeavoring to get a combination to carry off for the second year the state championship in the minor division.

The Girls play at Lisbon that night, so there will be just the one main game here Saturday. Coach Margaret Tinsley's cohorts should win out, but the sextet will have to watch out, due to overconfidence and the tiresome road trip of the night previous.

The season is fast drawing to a close. Excepting Alliance on Feb. 22, only the East Liverpool games here on the 25th remain on the schedule. The first round of the district tourney begins March 2 at Akron.

CAGE CARNIVAL IN CITY LEAGUE

With the City cage league season drawing near its completion, interest is becoming keen among the supporters of the various fives.

Three games tonight make it a basketball carnival, and a large crowd of rooters probably will be on hand at the Memorial gym to watch the following outfits in action:

Kiwanis vs Mullins Office, Prince club vs Mullins Radiators, and the Electric Furnace vs the United Cigars. The first game is at 7:15, and forfeits will be awarded if teams are not on the floor on time.

If the United Cigars win, that team will have a chance, the last one to defeat the Masons, now leading the circuit, on Thursday night. The Masons, by winning will grab the title.

DELANEY LANDS ANOTHER KAYO

Rochester, N. Y., Feb. 14.—The powerful fists of Jack Delaney today are primed for a knockout when he faces Tom Heeney in New York on March 1 in the semi-finals of Tex Rickard's heavy weight elimination tourney.

The Bridgeport, Conn. Adonis finished his ring campaigning for that bout by knocking out Leo Gates, of North Adams, Mass., in the second round of their scheduled ten round go here last night.

Gates was doctored from the start. The burly Indian took four counts of nine before a crushing right to the bread basket ended the alleged battle.

TWO GAMES THIS WEEK FOR STUDS

The Althouse Studebakers will clash twice this week with the Salineville Kiwanians.

Wednesday night the county league teams will meet at Salineville. Friday night they will play the prelim to the Mullins-Olson's Nordics game at the High school gym.

Pete Saunders is now looking after the managing end of the outfit.

Hahn Just Misses Fifth World Mark

New York, Feb. 14.—Four-fifths of a second was all that stood today between Lloyd Hahn and his fifth world record.

At the Elks interscholastic meet last night, the great American middle distance runner almost equaled the mark of 2:43.3-5 made by Jimmy Connolly five years ago for the two-thirds of a mile.

Morris Maslin, of Stuyvesant high school cleared 6 feet 2 inches in the high jump, a new indoor record for American schoolboys.

COURT NEWS

Partition Case

The partition of the property known as the Mary A. Patterson Christian Home, East Fourth st., East Liverpool, is sought in a petition filed in common pleas court here by her counsel, Charles Boyd. The building was erected according to the provisions of the will of the late Monroe Patterson of East Liverpool, and is said to have cost approximately $250,000, and at present is unoccupied.

Defendants in this action include George W. Patterson and 20 others, it being claimed in the petition that each defendant is entitled to a part of the property.

Counsel for the plaintiffs has related that most all other property owned by the late Patterson has been disposed of.

Divorce Petition

Declaring that her husband has been guilty of gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty, Pearl Stoffel, through her counsel Ben L. Bennett of East Liverpool has filed an action for divorce in common pleas court against her husband, Ernest Stoffel. The couple were married in July, 1922, and one child is of issue. Alimony for the support of the child is also asked, and the plaintiff also seeks its custody.

Want Title Quieted

Dora Miller and Florence Spencer are plaintiffs in a partition action filed against the estates of George D. McGarner and heirs, and also seek the title quieted to a tract of farm land in Salem township.

Salem Divorce Case

Clara E. Resatka, Salem, has filed an action for divorce in common pleas court against her husband, Joseph Resatka, 445 Arch st., employed at the Jessup Pattern Works plant, and receiving $120 per month as salary.

The couple were married at Lisbon March 31, 1923 and have two children. Mrs. Resatka charges her husband with extreme cruelty, saying that he attempted to choke her, and swore at her until it became intolerable for the plaintiff to reside with the defendant.

Made Party Defendant

On the motion of the Wheatley Loan & Discount company, the Firestone Bank of Lisbon has been made a party defendant in the case of John Konecheck against Harry Crubaugh. In this case the plaintiff has asked for the appointment of a receiver for the defendant. Summons has been ordered by the court in this case.

Appoints Guardian

Following a hearing in probate court upon the application for a guardian for John L. Lippert of Salem, the court has appointed George Lippert to serve under this trust.

Would Be Citizens

Franz Frank, 31, Washingtonville, a baker, has filed with Clerk of Courts Frank Ballantine, his declaration of intent to become a citizen of the United States. He is a native of Germany, and arrived at New York, Nov. 22, 1927.

Similar declarations have been filed by Hermann Getzkowitz, 24, native of Germany, a blacksmith, and residing at 242 Prospect st., Salem. He arrived at New York, Nov. 27, last; and Filip Yakubek, 43, a native of Czechoslovakia residing at 251 Prospect st., Salem. He is a millworker and arrived at New York, March, 1907.

Confirms Report

The report of the referee has been confirmed and a judgment entered on the report in the case of the First National bank of East Palestine against Sam White. The receivers in this case, W. O. Wallace, Columbiana, and L. M. Kyes, East Palestine, have been ordered by the court to sell personal property in this action.

Divorce Cases

Mrs. Blanche Guy, wife of George Guy, residing on the Lincoln Highway near the Liverpool-St. Clair township line, who was married at Achor, Nov. 24, 1887, has filed a petition for divorce against her husband in common pleas court, setting up the grounds of extreme cruelty by habitually indulging in the use of profane and insulting language toward the plaintiff.

The charge of gross neglect of duty is also made, it being declared that Mrs. Guy has been compelled to live upon the charity of her children.

It is related in the petition that Guy makes $50 per week out of his dairy business, owns real estate of the value of $7,000 and chatties, including an automobile of the value of $1,500.

Gross neglect of duty is charged.

In a petition for divorce filed in common pleas court by Bessie Matthews against her husband, Cleveland Matthews, said to be residing at Bula, Va. The couple were married September, 1917.

On the grounds of extreme cruelty and gross neglect of duty, a decree of divorce has been granted Helen L. White from her husband, Walter B. White. The action has been pending since Sept. 24 last. The plaintiff has been restored to her maiden name, Helen Loving.

Persia Will Enforce
Conscription Laws

Teheran, Feb. 14.—The new conscription law will be enforced by all means, it is stated here, despite the opposition of the "Mullas" or priests who have invited the leading Persian clergymen to a conference at Kum, a famous shrine, to voice their protests.

King Tut's Tomb Is Open Three Days A Week to Tourists

Cairo, Feb. 14.—The tomb of Tutankhamen has been reopened to visitors during the morning hours three days a week. To enable visitors to remain and see the inside of the tomb an electric current is supplied for the Valley of the Kings, providing light and air.

Howard Carter has finished his work on the tombs, for the present, having cleared the fourth chamber of its marvelous collection. The tombs were re-opened earlier than announced in honor of the members of the statistical congress who came from Cairo to Luxor and were anxious to see the treasures buried with the Pharaohs.

Persia Will Enforce
Conscription Laws

Teheran, Feb. 14.—The new conscription law will be enforced by all means, it is stated here, despite the opposition of the "Mullas" or priests who have invited the leading Persian clergymen to a conference at Kum, a famous shrine, to voice their protests.

Cabinet ministers have been negotiating with the clergy, and "mullas" have been closeted with the government officials, but so far there is no end of the deadlock.

Burns Detectives In Fall-Sinclair Case Transferred

Washington, Feb. 14.—Fifteen Burns detectives, who were engaged in surveillance of Fall-Sinclair oil conspiracy trial jurors will be jostled over the country and put to work in widely separated areas at the close of the Burns-Sinclair contempt proceedings.

This is necessary, W. Sherman Burns, acting head of the organization said, because publicity given the trial has made generally known the identity of these men. Their value to the big private detective agency is thus destroyed in this section.

Edinburgh, Scotland.—Fishermen on Scottish rivers, where the salmon season opened must carry heavily loaded pocketbooks. For an average fisherman it is estimated each salmon landed costs roughly $40.

AT THE STATE

American youth, sparkling vivacious and in all its glory has been captured in Fox Films comedy drama, "High School Hero," which opened at the State yesterday.

This picture of high school life is something very different from anything that has been brought to the screen before, inasmuch as every other type of youth has been shown excepting the high school student.

The picture is crammed with humorous episodes from start to finish and includes every form of student activity from athletics to study and graduation preparations. One exciting sequence is a realistic and hotly contested game between rival basketball teams.

The entire case is splendid and it is difficult to say who gives the best performance. One lovely young woman, barely more than a girl, Sally Phillips, comes to the fore in this picture though it is said to be her first feature role. Another youngster who lives up to promises is Nick Stuart, who scored his first triumph in "Cradle Snatchers."

This cast is surprising, as two other new faces are seen in it, who make good in their first important roles. They are David Rollins and John Darrow, both of whom give splendid performances.

Charles Paddock, internationally known athlete has an important role.

AT THE GRAND

One of the best Western films brought to the screen during the season is "Spoilers of the West," Tim McCoy's new Western melodrama which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer is presenting at the Grand.

The picture is replete with action, vividly colored and contains a charming love romance such as is seldom seen in a picture of this character.

There is no doubt that McCoy, who came to the screen only a little more than a year ago, does his best work in this picture, not only as a soldier and stunt rider but as a lover.

Marjorie Daw, who appears with him in the featured feminine lead, is an old trouper as far as years of service in films go, but still as winsome and charming a young lady as when she was being featured a few years back by Marshall Neilan.

The story of "Spoilers of the West" has to do with the historic Laramie treaty which gave to the Indians thousands of square miles of rich hunting grounds, coveted and later invaded by white trappers and settlers.

It was this treaty which later caused much bloodshed between the whites and red men when the government was unable to keep off trespassing emigrants from the Indians' preserves.

William Fairbanks, formerly a Western star in his own right, does a good bit of work as the villainous brother of Miss Daw, and Chief Big Tree plays the role of Red Cloud to perfection.

Lonely Men, Women Follow Iowa Plan To Hasten Wedding

Dunlap, Iowa, Feb. 14.—Interest in the "Lonely Men and Women" club of this town has picked up with the first indication of the success of the organization, and according to Mrs. Ethel Chamber, its promoter, letters seeking details of the club are being received from other towns and cities in Iowa.

The first "success" reported is the announcement by Mrs. Chamber that two of the club's members, Mrs. Cora Gossell, a widow, and P. A. Hall, have become engaged to be married. The club was formed for the purpose of bringing together men and women with a trip to the altar the ultimate goal. There are many men and women in cities and towns who live lonely lives, Mrs. Chamber says, simply because they do not have the opportunity to meet people and make social acquaintances.

Housekeeping Course For German Brides Started In Berlin

Berlin, Feb. 14.—A regular "Hausfrau" course, to teach prospective brides how to keep house and their parents what to buy for the dowry of their daughters, has been instituted by the League of Berlin Housewives association.

The need for instruction arose because more and more German girls are going to work in shops and offices, and factories, while the marriage customs, requiring an elaborate wedding and a dowry in proportion to the wealth of the bride's parents, remains unchanged.

In connection with the course the league arranged an exhibition of the most modern and practical furniture and especially kitchen equipment for newly married couples.

The league figures that the cost of starting housekeeping in a modest but wholly modern way need not exceed $800.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

Travelers tell home-bodies of the famous soups they meet on their travels among other desirable acquaintances. Let the homebodies beat them to it, so to speak, and try the following recipes for their amusement. Follow the directions closely and after one making you will want to ask your neighbors in to taste the foreign visitor.

Cook-a-Leekie (Scotland)

Clean, trim and slice one dozen large, fresh leeks, slicing in half-inch pieces. Dice a fresh carrot, cut a bunch of celery in half-inch pieces, and saute all together in a heaping tablespoonful of butter. When softened, but not browned, put into a soup kettle with a fresh young fowl carefully cleaned and trussed and two quarts of sea stock. Cover closely and cook gently for about three hours, or until the chicken is very tender. Lift the chicken, remove the bones and put the soup through a puree sieve. Return to kettle and season to taste, then put in the chicken cut in convenient sized pieces, and simmer gently for a few minutes to season through thoroughly and it is ready to serve. This with oat cakes makes a Scotch meal.

Potage Jacqueline (French)

Put one and a half quarts of chicken broth that has had the grease removed into a sauce pan and heat it hot. Blend together a cupful of milk, the yolks of three eggs and one heaping tablespoonful of flour. Bring to boiling point, stirring continuously, and when thickened add gradually to the hot broth. Add pepper, salt, juice of an onion, then strain, reheat but do not cook any more, adding a tablespoonful of each of boiled rice, diced cooked carrots, chopped parsley, asparagus tips, and green peas. Add when hot, a quarter cupful of hot cream and serve.

Pea Soup (Spain)

Heat a cupful of olive oil to boiling point, then add three cupfuls of freshly shelled green peas. Cook slowly until tender. Next add a pint of boiling water, a quart of warm milk, a tablespoon of onion juice, a heaping tablespoonful of baking soda, a can of hot tomato sauce, a tablespoonful of chopped parsley and a tablespoonful of diced raw carrot. Cook gently for 20 minutes. Thicken with two tablespoonfuls of flour blended in a half cupful of milk.

STYLE EDICTS

It is not hard to discover the reason for the survival of tailored lines, in spite of the femininity for in no other way can the ease and grace of the slim silhouette be achieved, and sports frocks be achieved, as with the simplicity of masculine lines. These, however, have none of the severity that was notable in past seasons. Novel fabrics are used to give a distinctly feminine effect and lines are broken to relieve any suggestion of harshness. Necklines and waistlines vary according to the individual and plaits, godets and circular flares all have their place in this versatile mode.

The daytime costume really is the most important in the average women's wardrobe and to this the greatest consideration should be given. It is essential that such costumes avoid a tiresome similarity while any suggestion of the pretentious is, of course, bad taste. There is a happy medium, but in seeking it, care should be taken to avoid monotony of design.

There is a decided contrast in the two costumes shown here. They might be worn successfully for any outdoor daytime occasion at the Southern resorts.

One has the long tunic that has been so popular all season. It is slightly bloused and the buttons on the surplus line of the front relieve the severity. The applied bands in the wide hem and sleeves are of a darker material that also makes the skirt.

The slim silhouette is emphasized by the straight one-piece frock of crepe de Chine that is worn with a jacket of flannel with a collar that is distinctly military in effect.

WHEAT DAMAGED DURING JANUARY

Zero Weather and Thaws Without Protection of Snow, Causes

Serious damage resulted to Columbiana county wheat fields during January, according to U. S. Co-operative Weather Observer Lawrence H. Copeland of Millport, a report on the condition of the fields having just been issued by him. The damage was caused by the zero weather in January following thaws and the absence of snow protection practically all during the month.

The total precipitation for the month of January was 4.37 inches, and the snow fall totaled 5.5 inches. The mean temperature during the month was 25.7 degrees and the maximum was 53 degrees, with a minimum of 3 below zero. The greatest range in temperature was 37 degrees recorded on Jan. 29.

Temperature during January was practically normal, but the precipitation was below normal, also snow was below normal. The daily mean temperatures were quite variable, the changes being marked and sudden.

There were two cold waves during January of considerable intensity, one appearing during the early part of January and another the latter part of the month. The second and third weeks of the month brought well defined warm waves when the highest temperatures of the month were recorded.

During January there were only five clear days, 10 partly cloudy and 16 cloudy days. Normal temperature for Columbiana county during the last 36 years for January is 26.7 and the precipitation for the same number of years has averaged 2.25 inches.

JUDGE JENKINS DIES SUDDENLY

Youngstown, Feb. 14.—Thomas H. Jenkins, judge of municipal court, died suddenly at his home, 2227 Powell at noon Monday.

Judge Jenkins had been ill for about a week.

Judge Jenkins was serving his second term on municipal bench. He was elected in 1922 and again in 1926.

He was active here in politics, as a Republican. He was a member of the board of education from 1905 to 1910.

For many years, he was associated with the C. D. Hine law firm.

COEDS OF OHIO STATE TO SPEAK IN SALEM SOON

Columbus, Feb. 14.—Two Columbiana county towns, Salem and Lisbon, are included in a tentative list which will be visited by women university students representing Ohio State university in the next few weeks.

Women's Ohio Association, co-ed athletic group at Ohio State, which is sponsoring the plan, will send one woman student to each of the two towns and also to several other Ohio cities and towns. The Ohio State representative will speak at a meeting to be arranged by the Alumni associations of the towns. Dates and speakers for the various towns and cities will be announced within a few days.
